A WORLD LIKE NOWHERE ELSE

Royal Ascot is synonymous with sartorial elegance.
This is upheld by our dress code, which invites guests to contribute to an occasion heralded as a major fashion event in its own right.

We are delighted to bring you our 2018 Royal Ascot Style Guide, in association with Cunard, to guide and inspire you with what to wear at Royal Ascot in June.

In 2017, Royal Ascot successfully welcomed the jumpsuit as an acceptable item of clothing for the Royal Enclosure. Ascot continues to recognise key trends in the ever-evolving world of fashion. Additions to the official dress code in 2018 makes socks a requirement for gentlemen and specific necklines detailed as acceptable, or not, across all Enclosures.

Our dress code is traditional, woven into the very fabric of our history.
It was Beau Brummell, perhaps Britain's first fashion icon, who at the turn of the 19th century dictated the dress for men in the Royal Enclosure.
His sense of style is still reflected in Royal Ascot fashions today.

For further information about Royal Ascot, our dress code and the stories that make the Royal Meeting a world like nowhere else, please visit ascot.co.uk.

ROYAL ENCLOSURE

LADIES

Ladies are kindly reminded that formal daywear is a requirement in the Royal Enclosure, defined as follows:

- Dresses and skirts should be of modest length defined as falling just above the knee or longer.
- Dresses and tops should have straps of one inch or greater.
- Jackets and pashminas may be worn but dresses and tops underneath should still comply with the Royal Enclosure dress code.
- Trouser suits are welcome. They should be of full-length to the ankle and of matching material and colour.
- Jumpsuits are welcome. They should be of full-length to the ankle, with regulations matching that for dresses.
- Hats should be worn; however a headpiece which has a solid base of 4 inches (10cm) or more in diameter is acceptable as an alternative to a hat.

Ladies are kindly asked to note the following:

- Strapless, off the shoulder, one shoulder, halter neck, bardot and spaghetti straps are not permitted.
- Midriffs must be covered.
- Fascinators are not permitted; neither are headpieces which do not have a solid base covering a sufficient area of the head (4 inches/10cm).

PLEASE NOTE: In addition to the specific guidance in this brochure, fancy dress, novelty and branded / promotional clothing are not allowed on site.

GENTLEMEN

Gentlemen are kindly reminded that it is a requirement to wear either black or grey morning dress which must include:

- A waistcoat and tie (no cravats)
- A black or grey top hat
- Black shoes worn with socks

A gentleman may remove his top hat within a restaurant, a private box, a private club or that facility's terrace, balcony or garden. Hats may also be removed within any enclosed external seating area within the Royal Enclosure Garden.

The customisation of top hats (with, for example, coloured ribbons or bands) is not permitted in the Royal Enclosure.

Top hats by Oliver Brown are available at 75 Lower Sloane Street, oliverbrown.org.uk.

CHILDREN

(Admitted on Thursday, Friday and Saturday only)

Girls (aged 10-17) should dress in accordance with the Ladies' dress code. However, they may wear a headpiece or fascinator as an alternative to a hat, without any size restriction.

Boys (aged 10-17) should either dress in accordance with the gentlemen's dress code; or alternatively may wear a dark-coloured lounge suit with a shirt.

OVERSEAS VISITORS

Overseas visitors are welcome to wear the formal National Dress of their country or Service Dress.

SERVING MILITARY PERSONNEL

Serving military personnel are welcome to wear Service Dress or equivalent.
